

Choose a career that changes lives

Rogers Behavioral Health, the leader in mental health and addiction care, is now hiring passionate, dedicated individuals to join the team for our new residential programs in Brown Deer. A career with Rogers includes a competitive benefits package, opportunities for advancement, and a fulfilling role helping others rise above the challenges of mental health and addiction.

Expected to open in summer 2022, the new residential facility will feature 32 beds for adults and adolescents. As a member of the Rogers team, you'll contribute to life-saving care for those in need and help change lives.

Rogers is now hiring multiple shifts for:

- Residential care specialists
- Therapists
- Nurses
- Housekeepers
- Maintenance
- And more
